

Simon Mehigan QC

Year of call: 1980 (QC 1998)

Practice Profile

Simon Mehigan QC acts as a mediator, particularly in matters concerning the following areas of law; contract, employment, disciplinary, gambling and fraud. He also advises on all aspects of betting and gaming law with an emphasis on the legality of new products and practices in the fields of breach of confidence, restraint of trade and fraud.

Cases of Note

- Advising the leading betting exchange, bookmakers, game operators, machine manufacturers, trade associations and lottery providers on the application of the Gambling Act 2005 to their businesses
- Representing a pharmaceutical company in relation to alleged fraudulent breaches of competition law
- Advising professional partnerships on hiring new partners/teams
- Advising in an FSA investigation

Publications

Author of 3 editions of Mehigan and Griffiths on the law of Restraint of Trade and Business Secrets, editor of the current and previous 13 editions of Paterson's Licensing Acts, contributor to the forthcoming edition of Smith and Monkcom on the law of Betting, Gaming and Lotteries, consultant editor to the forthcoming edition of the Gambling Law volume of Halsbury's Laws.

Qualifications and Appointments

CEDR accredited mediator; previously worked in the City as a banker.